Tax, PRPC Face Commission

HOMECOMING QUEEN candidates, from left, Melissa Hicks, Sharon Triplett, Linda Dudenhoeffer, and Jan Sternenberg. Coronation of the Canyon High School homecoming queen will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday evening in Buffalo Bowl immediately preceding the homecoming football game which pits the CHS Eagles vs. Dalhart.

Two controversial issues face the Canyon City Commissioners tonight--city sales tax and Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

Mayor Paul Lindsey said the commission will probably discuss and decide whether residents of the city will vote on institution of a 1 per cent city sales tax.

The tax is not listed on the city agenda for tonight's 7 p.m. meeting in the City Hall Annex.

Commissioners will also consider a resolution calling for the adoption of by-laws of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission (PRPC).

Randall County Commissioners, Amarillo City Commissioners and Potter County Commissioners have voted to join the PRPC. Only Randall County, however, has named its two representatives to the planning entity. Judge Carroll Brown and Commissioners Bill Butler will represent the county.

The resolution presented city commissioners will be similar to the one presented Randall commissioners two weeks ago.

Mayor Lindsey said in connection with the decision on whether to call an election for the city sales tax, he will recommend to commissioners that the city ad valorem tax--which is now $1.60 per $100 valuation on 50 per cent of the total valuation--be reduced by more than 10 cents.

"If we can't take more off the ad valorem taxes, then we should take off some other charges like sewer charges or trash collectionfees," the mayor said. "I don't think it's fair to ask the people for the city sales tax and not lower some other taxes."

When commissioners first discussed calling a sales tax election last winter, it was generally agreed upon that if a sales tax is initiated, ad valorem taxes should be reduced.

Amarillo voters turned out four to one in favor of the sales tax last week and voters in Canadian and Pampa have also voted for the tax.

The mayor said if commissioners vote to call the election, it cannot be held less than 21 days following the first date of publication of the resolution.

Even if the tax is voted upon and passed this year, it cannot go into effect by law until after April 1, Lindsey said.

The mayor said the tax will provide the city with 1 cent per dollar spent in Canyon on items also taxed by the state government.

The Texas Legislature passed a bill allowing cities to collect a city sales tax on a local option basis in their 1967 session.

The Panhandle Regional Planning Commission got off to a fiery start several weeks ago as officials from Amarillo, Canyon, and Potter and Randall counties gathered here to form the commission.

Spectators hooted as the vote to adopt the PRPC by-laws was taken and the formation approved.

In other business at tonight's meeting, commissioners are expected to consider a resolution proclaiming next week as Canyon Fire Prevention Week.

They are also to consider bids on traffic signal equipment, which is to be installed on 23rd.

Four To Vie For Queen Of CHS Homecoming

The rounds of a queen's candidate is in the offing this week end for four Canyon High School beauties vying for the crown of CHS Homecoming Queen.

Candidates for the honor are Jan Sternenberg, Sharon Triplett, Linda Dudenhoeffer and Melissa Hicks. All are senior students.

Miss Sternenberg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sternenberg and is a forward on the girls' varsity basketball team. She is 17 years old, stands 5' 6" and has long brown hair with greenish eyes.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Triplett, Sharon has blonde hair, blue-green eyes and stands 5' 6". She is 18 years old and was selected sweetheart for the Future Farmers of America chapter this year, is an officer for the senior class and active in the CHS Student Council, Future Business Leaders Association and Future Teachers Association.

Miss Dudenhoeffer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dudenhoeffer. She is 17, has long brown hair, brown eyes and is 5 feet 6 inches tall. She is a guard on the varsity girls' basketball team and a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hicks, Melissa is a senior cheerleader at the school. She is 5' 2" tall, has blonde hair and hazel eyes.

At the homecoming assembly Friday afternoon (2:30 p.m.) the queen's candidates will be formally introduced in a program arranged by Charlotte Brantley, art instructor.

Outcome of the queen's contest will be announced at the coronation rites at 7:30 p.m. that evening in Buffalo Bowl, immediately preceding the football game between the CHS Eagles and Dalhart at 8 o'clock.

Homecoming week end will kick off tonight, Thursday, with a game pitting the CHS Junior Varsity against Phillips at 6:30 p.m. to be followed with the annual pep rally in the gymnasium and a homecoming bonfire afterwards east of the CHS football field.

Ex-students will be welcomed at the school all day Friday and the annual ex-student homecoming assembly will be at 2:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Ex-students (the oldest and the one traveling the fartherest to attend) will be recognized with awards during the assembly.

Included in the homecoming assembly will also be the presentation of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce scholastic plaque for 1969 graduates with a 94 or better grade point average. Roland Black, chamber secretary, will present the plaque which is to be accepted by John Sommer, CHS principal.

Slated from 5-7 p.m. is an Italian spaghetti supper to be served under the sponsorship of the Canyon Band Parents Association. The supper at the CHS cafeteria will be open to the public with plate prices set at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students and children.

The homecoming football game will be followed with an after-game dance in the CHS commons which is open for all CHS students and ex-students. No entry fee will be charged.

ROAD RUNNER. . . close enough to catch atop a fence at 1300 Second Avenue in Canyon Monday. The bird, commonly known as a desert killer of snakes, is defined by Webster's dictionary as "a bird of the cuckoo family, of largely terrestrial habits, noted for running with great speed and ranging from California to Mexico and Texas. It is also called the chaparral."

Appoint Amarillo Attorney New District Court Judge

Gov. Preston Smith named Amarillo attorney Don Dean Tuesday as judge of the newly formed 181st District Court which is to serve Randall and Potter Counties.

Dean, a resident of Randall County since moving to Amarillo in 1961, was notified of his appointment to the new court by telegram. The appointment was effective Wednesday.

The court was formed during special session of the Texas Legislature this summer to take some of the burden off the two other district courts--the 108th and 47th--in Amarillo.

Dean, a native and long-time resident of Lubbock, is associated with Sanders-Scott-Saunders-Brian and Humphrey law firm in Amarillo.

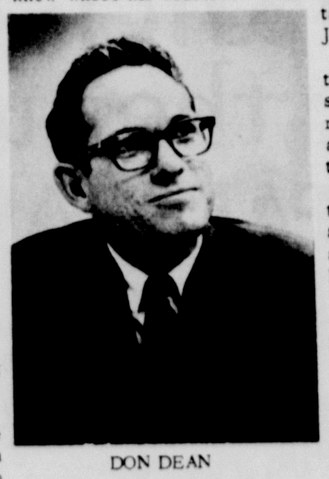
He was formerly assistant county attorney in Lubbock before moving to Amarillo.

"I am very grateful to the governor for his confidence in me," Dean said. "I am also particularly grateful to members of the bar here and in Canyon who helped me. You just can't get something like this on your own."

Dean said he definitely plans to run for election to the district judge's bench in 1970. His appointment is only for a year.

"I wouldn't have sought the job, if I didn't intend to run for it," he said.

Dean said he doesn't now know where his courtroom will be located. He said he will locate after conferring with 47th District Court Judge Gene Jordan and 108th Disrict Court Judge Mary Lou Robinson.



DON DEAN

He said he will probably spend a good amount of time in Randall County.

Dean will probably be sworn in next week by James Denton, Chief Justice of the 7th Court of Civil Appeals.

He said date for his first docket call will be set after he talks with Judge Jordan and Judge Mrs. Robinson.

"I'm going to have to rely to a great extent on the present judges to teach me the ropes," Dean said. "It isn't an easy transition from lawyer to judge overnight."

A graduate of Texas Tech and the Southern Methodist University Law School, Dean was assistant county attorney in Lubbock from 1958 to 1961.

He was associated in Lubbock with a law firm which included former Texas attorney general Waggoner Carr.

Dean is a member of the Randall County School Trustees. He is a deacon in the First Christian Church in Amarillo where he is also vice chairman of the congregation.

He is vice president of the newly organized High Plains Area Association of Christian Churches and is a past president of the Christian Men's Fellowship.

NY Jet Scout Sees Thomas

The chief scout and director of player personnel for the World Champion New York Jets professional football team was in Canyon Tuesday for a look at West Texas State's recently benched fullback Duane Thomas.

Homer Eddington said he came to town to watch "Thomas and some others" in practice and to talk with the Buffalo coaches.

Eddington was noncommittal about how good a prospect he considered Thomas to be, but said it was his policy to be noncommittal. He also declined to mention any names of other Buffalo gridders he might be interested in.

"He obviously has some talent and ability or he wouldn't be a prospect," Eddington said. "We mainly look for size and speed in a prospect."

Thomas is known to be both big and fast, but the powerful runner fumbled three times in last Saturday's 25-7 win over Northern Illinois and was benched by Coach Joe Kerbel early in the fourth quarter.

Kerbel said after the game that Ramese Falafine, a 5-foot, 11-inch, 210-pound sophomore would start in Thomas' position in the Wichita State game this Saturday.

Thomas is a 6-2, 220-pounder with 9.8 speed.

Eddington said that in December he and other Jets personnel will examine scouting reports on over 1,800 players from large schools and small all over the country. They will also watch countless game films before the winter draft.

Eddington, a former Ohio State end, said that the most intensive scouting of prospects by the pros is in the spring because the college coaches have more time to talk to scouts then.

"We ask them about juniors who will be seniors the following fall," Eddington said. "In the fall coaches are busy and what they are doing is more important to them than what we are doing is to them."

The scout said he travels all over the country seeing a college game every week, sometimes two.

"I try to watch the Jets on television on Sundays, but I don't get to see them play much."

He coaches the offensive backfield during summer camp.

His job would not be exactly ideal for a married man.

"I travel at least six months of the year and when I'm in New York I stay in a hotel. Someone asked me where I lived once and I told them the Holiday Inn."

Dalhart Coach Says CHS Is 'Big, Fast And Tough'

Dalhart football coach Doc Rowell anticipates a tough ball game Friday night in the Buffalo Bowl against what he described as a "big, fast and tough" Canyon High School team.

Kick-off time is 8 p.m.

Rowell said scouting reports indicated that the Canyon Eagles are a team that makes few mistakes and cashes in on its opponents' mistakes.

"We've had some good workouts and have been improving each week," Rowell said. "But we know we will be playing a Triple A ball club. They use a two platoon system whereas we play about 15 boys both ways most of the time. I mean that's about how many boys we count on to play most of the game on both offense and defense."

The Dalhart coach said that he hoped playing three triple A teams before starting district play would improve his team. I think we'll be a better ball club for having played such stiff competition."

Rowell's 2-A team lost to Triple A Tulia 18-16 and takes on Hereford the week after the Canyon game. Dalhart beat Guymon, Okla., 14-12 and routed Stratford 48-12.

Coach Dunny Goode and his undefeated Eagles aren't taking the Wolves lightly. The memory of last year's 26-22 loss to the Dalhart club should give the Eagles plenty of incentive.

"Last year by the middle of the second quarter they had us down 20-0," Coach Goode recalled this week. The Eagles battled back but still lost in a close struggle.

What about Friday night's game?

"We'll be real hard pressed to beat Dalhart. It'll probably be one of the best teams we've played," Coach Goode said. Noting that at the start of the 1968 season Dalhart was the winningest team in Texas over the preceding five years, Goode said, "they have great school pride and a winning tradition. They will be very tough, both mentally and physically."

The Eagles' coach said the biggest improvement in the Spearman game over the week

Two New Starters Set To Play For Buffaloes

When West Texas State University's young Buffaloes invade Wichita, Kan., for their Saturday afternoon (1:30 p.m.) clash with the University of Wichita's Shockers they will have a new look.

Two new players will be starting in the backfield, thanks to their standout showings in last week's 22-7 victory over Northern Illinois.

Ralph "Rocky" Thompson, who scampered for 115 net yards in the Northern Illinois clash, will be at the running back spot and Ramse Falafine will start at fullback.

Thompson will share time at his post with Olan Thompson (no relation), who started in the Buffs' opener against Northern Arizona. Olan's performances in both games were steady and he leads the Buffs in pass receiving with five, but Rocky showed the ability to break for the long gainer.

Falafine replaces Duane Thomas as fullback after picking up 74 yards in 14 efforts against the Illinois club. Thomas leads the team in rushing with 170 net yards through two games, but has lost a trio of fumbles to opponents.

In Wichita the Buffs will be meeting a club they have beaten only twice in five efforts.

Leading the Wichita attacks is tailback Kenny Lee. Two years ago, as a sophomore, Lee carried 53 times against the Buffs to set an NCAA mark which has since been broken. That effort, which was good for 205 yards, led Wichita to a 22-13 victory.

Lee was held down last year as the Buffaloes took a 26-0 victory in Buffalo Bowl.

Through three games this fall, in which the Shockers have two defeats and one victory, Lee has 257 yards gained in 68 attempts.

Wichita, playing in its new stadium with a Uni-Turf surface, upset Utah State, 17-7, in its opening game. The Shockers have been on the road for the past two weeks and have fallen 24-0 to Florida State and 50-21 to Colorado State.

This will be the first West Texas State squad to play on an artificial surface.

The Buffaloes return home Saturday Oct. 11 to play powerful San Diego State. That will be Pampa Night at Buffalo Bowl and the Pampa High School band, which has made national television appearances, will perform at halftime along with the WTSU band.

More To TV Game Than Meets Eye

Commercials Cause Squeeze

BY CARROLL WILSON

When you sit back in your easy chair on a Saturday afternoon and comfortably view an intercollegiate football game, it's hard to realize the months of elaborate and methodical planning which culminated in the televising of the game.

The televising of a college game is as intricately planned as a major ballet--but the choreography is left to the participants' imaginations.

The American Broadcasting Corp., which will broadcast the West Texas State University and New Mexico State University game Oct. 25, has issued a two-inch thick scenario designed to insure that the game on television meets a minute schedule.

In addition, the scenario sets out areas of responsibility not only for the announcers of the broadcast, but for the about 40 other ABC employes who will be in Canyon working with the game.

Microphone placement and even cable length down to the foot are listed in the script, as well as the exact placement of cameras.

Bill O'Donnell of Baltimore, Md., will announce the game over television and Ron Burton of Framingham, Mass., will provide the color coverage.

The television team will require three rooms in the Buffalo Bowl press box.

In one of the rooms, O'Donnell and Burton will make their telecast and in another room one of the three color television cameras will be located.

One camera will be located in a van on the 50-yard line at the bowl and another will be on a platform which is to be built the week of the game in section D.

The scenario requires that the platform be 8' x 8' x 4'. An instant video tape replay camera will also be brought to the game.

The production crew, according to the script, will arrive in Canyon Thursday and will leave Sunday.

The pre-game show, which will include background on WTSU and NMSU as well as a short clip about the 100th anniversary of collegiate football, will be of exactly 13 minutes endurance. It is to begin at 1:30 p.m.

The game is to end, including post-game show, at

Assistant Scoutmaster, Donald Day, of Troop 66 congratulates Ronnie Cates after reading a congratulatory letter from National Scout Executive, Alden G. Baker. Mrs. Roy Cates was presented with a corsage and Cates presented Ronnie with his Eagle neckerchief.

Ronnie Cates Receives Highest Scout Award

Ronnie Cates received the highest rank bestowed in Boy Scouting at Court of Honor ceremonies held at the First Christian Church of Canyon Monday evening.

Presenting the award was assistant scoutmaster, Donald Day. Day unfolded Ronnie's past history in scouting, school, and everyday life.

He received his class of Tenderfoot December of 1965 and went on to earn his second class in May of 1966 and his first class rank in July of 1966. The rank of Star was presented to him on July of 1967 and he received his rank of Life in July of 1968.

Special scouting awards include the God and Country Award earned from extra-curricular work and service extended to his church and he is a member of the Order of the Arrow, an organization of scouters chosen by fellow scouts because of outstanding camping skills.

Four new boys to Troop 66 were welcomed by the troop. They were Gary Tidwell, Ricky Rogers, Jay Langen, and Steve Ross. Tidwell and Rogers were each presented with a boy scout handbook by the troop for passing their Webeloe achievements in order to go on into scouting at the Tenderfoot level.

Scoutmaster LeRoy Moreland extended his thanks to Charles Peckenpaugh, past scoutmaster, and Donald Day, assistant scoutmaster for the work they had done with the troop in the past. Both are to continue to work with the troop.

At the opening of the Court of Honor, Moreland explained that the badges earned by the boys were not so important but what the boys learned from earning these badges was invaluable. Approximately 75 merit badges were awarded during the ceremonies.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Brown:

Your column of September 18 which dealt with school integration, contained this statement: "Anyone with experience in the area knows that black teachers are more effective with black children, and white teachers are more effective with white children". My experience (six years) with integrated faculties, in Texas and in Oregon, has taught me rather that the most effective teacher is one who is well prepared and who genuinely wants to teach. Race can and should be overlooked, for the problem of finding enough teachers who fit this description is already enormous.

More at issue, however, than merely this particular judgment, are the premises which stand behind your statement. Since you advocate segregation by race in the teacher-student relationship, doesn't it follow that you are in fact advocating a totally segregated school system? The legislation which for several years now has aimed at eliminating segregation, particularly in education, has as its premise that segregation is a social ill, a disease. To carry this metaphor a step farther--and the metaphor is a good one, judging by the great poets who have used it as an instrument for some of their most serious thought--this disease has gone unchecked for so long, and has become so entrenched in the body politic, that corrective measures will have to be stern. And we should not be surprised to find them distressing and painful as well.

Your column rather consistently concerns itself with the pain and distress which is accompanying efforts toward social reform in the United States. There is certainly cause for concern but should this concern be expressed in terms of criticism that lead nowhere, except perhaps to a retreat, or in constructive terms which seek to cooperate in solving problems and in improving rather than destroying programs with worthwhile goals--such as Sex Education, another recent target of "Our World".

I do not find in your columns an awareness of the prime issues, of the roots of the problems which need to be solved. In your position as columnist for the sole newspaper in our community, could you not better serve the cause of improving society than by criticizing just about every program whose goal is to create a happier, healthier, more democratic future? Even the seemingly inoffensive highway picnic facility has not escaped censure, I notice. One begins to expect that, sooner or later, even the flag (too much red in it?) and motherhood (too related to sex?) may be called into question by "Our World"!

Sincerely,
Mary Haraden

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

There is famine in America.

Some time ago a picture was circulated showing a Texas baby purportedly dying of starvation. In truth, the subject was a premature baby in a San Antonio hospital. The picture was made and circulated without the knowledge of the parents. They were not in need, and the baby had been receiving the best of care.

It is not necessary to falsify evidence to prove our current famine; evidence is flagrant on every hand. It is the famine predicted by Amos more than 700 years B. C. "Behold the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst of water, but of hearing the words of the Lord" (Amos 8:11).

The social-gospel preachers contend the Church lacks "relevancy" unless the members devote their time, energies, and money to ministering to minorities, feeding the hungry, picking up derelicts on skid row, and being "diggers" for hippies. These good men are suffering from Amos' famine.

When God Himself walked the earth in human form, He fed the hungry only in dire emergencies. And in spite of His unlimited resources, there are only two occasions recorded that Jesus provided food for the hungry. When they came back the third time, He refused (John 6:25-27).

When His followers asked what they should do to "work the Works of God" if good works did not mean passing out free food, Jesus said they were to believe in and follow Him.

If Christians are to follow Christ (and that is what the word "Christian" means), what did He do?

In the first place, Jesus worked. He was a carpenter; and that is hard, creative, productive work. Next to producing food and fiber, building homes is the most basic, essential, worthwhile labor on earth.

In the next place, He walked in obedience to the laws of the established government--in spite of the fact that the Jews were captives (many of them enslaved) of the heathen Romans; and some of the laws were oppressive and unjust.

Jesus also diligently studied the Scriptures (He quoted them frequently); He faithfully kept the Sabbath; attended public worship, rested, and fellowshipped with friends; and He testified daily to the love, power, and presence of the living God.

Under the teaching and inspiration of Jesus, His followers cleaned up their lives, and became happy, productive citizens.

American churches are famous for ministering to suffering humanity in emergencies. And they usually look after the needs of their own members. Working church members being a minority of the population, it would be humanly impossible for them to provide material necessities for all indigents.

Contrary to commissioning Christians to feed the idle poor, the Scripture commands that "if any would not work, neither should he eat" (II Thes. 3:10).

The Christian's divine commission is found in Matt. 28:18-20. It says nothing about material gifts at all.

It is true that the Church has failed the world, not, however, by a lack of physical and material ministry.

The majority of Christians have failed the world by NOT following the example and teachings of Jesus in (1) being kind and courteous to all people; (2) being honest (and this includes God's tithe) and industrious in all personal, family, civic, and business relationships; (3) being faithful in public worship, Bible study, private devotions, and intercessory prayer; (4) and most of all by failing to be living witnesses to the love and grace of God, and thereby failing to communicate His message of strength and hope to lost humanity.

Half of the average church membership is absent every Sunday, engaged in secular work or worse--their own pleasure. Professing Christians are about as likely to beat their debts, be involved in divorce, illicit love affairs, civil suits, and even murder, as the agnostics and atheists are. Is this not ample evidence of spiritual famine?

The Bible says "God is love," yet He will not do anything for us we can do for ourselves.

The preachers who sincerely want to alleviate famine should stop inciting riots and hatred, and start feeding their sheep from the Bible--not Marx.

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Brown represented the Canyon Kiwanis Club Monday night as they attended an installation banquet for the Kiwanis club in Shamrock.

Television . . .

Included in the scenario is a large map of the United States, showing areas to be covered by the WTSU regional telecast.

Seven television stations in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona will carry the broadcast to 1.8 per cent of the U. S. television homes.

The Michigan vs. Iowa game, which is also televised Oct. 25, will be shown to 70.3 per cent of the country's homes. The Texas Tech and Southern Methodist University game will be viewed in 9.9 per cent of the homes and the Auburn at Louisiana State University game will be available to 18.7 per cent of the homes.

Stations cleared for the WTSU broadcast include one in Amarillo, one in Monohans/Odessa, El Paso, Phoenix, Ariz., Tucson, Ariz., Carlsbad, N. M., and Albuquerque, N. M.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the entire broadcast will involve the way the network works in commercials.

The scenario in no uncertain terms stipulates that the announcer here fits 18 commercials in the game. Nine are set for the first half and nine for the second half.

The main responsibility of fitting commercials into the game falls on the shoulders of two men" a "liaison official" and the referee.

According to the scenario, the liaison official "coordinates with the referee to make sure commercials may be inserted in telecasts without noticeable effect on normal conduct of games involved."

Three commercials are desired in each quarter with one prior to kick-off, one between the first and second quarters, one after the close of the first half, one prior to the second half kick-off, one between the second and third periods and one after the game.

The liaison official and referee must make sure that intervals for commercials between quarters is at least one minute and 15 seconds in the first half and two minutes and 15 second in the second half.

Commercials interspersed throughout the game will be of one-minute duration.

During the pre-game officials conference, the liaison official "will verify the fact that the referee will indicate a time-out which is to be extended for the sake of a commercial by means of a prearranged audible signal clearly apparent to captains and coaches."

The scenario stipulates that no extra time-outs be called to accommodate television. But, it does call for extension of time-outs.

Besides worrying with getting enough commercials in, the liaison official and referee must worry about having the commercials spaced properly in the quarters.

The liaison official "must have the help of the referee in seeing to it that the game officials make every effort to prevent awkward inactivity on the field during commercials.

"This," says the scenario, "is the test of the ingenuity of the officials."

Keeping the people in the stands happy is of prime importance.

"It is of prime importance for the officials to busy themselves in contacts with huddles or in movement about the area in which play has been suspended; this will effectively guard against dissatifaction in the stands," the scenario reads. "It is suggested that, if so desired, coaches utilize this time-out to talk with a player at the sidelines."

The liaison official will be conspicuous to the crowd as he strolls the sidlines. He is to wear a white shirt, white cap, white knickers and black shoes and stockings.

Some of his actions will also be conspicuous.

"While a television commercial is on the air, the liaison official will stand on the sideline with hands clasped in front of him," the book says. "The referee will not permit play to resume until the liaison official drops his hands.

"The liaison official, notified by the television producer that a commercial is in its last 15 seconds, will drop his hands when there are 10 seconds to go; the referee will then proceed with the resumption of play."

before was in the offensive blocking, but added this week's drills would stress improvement in all phases of the game, especially in the kicking department.

In last week's win over Spearman, Center Chris Hull had the highest grade among the regulars with a 94. Other offensive linemen with good scores were Calvin Yarborough at left tackle with a 93, right guard Gary Schrib with an 89 and left end Allen Bedell with an 86.

Wingback Lonnie Moore, who is a doubtful starter for the Dalhart game because of a pulled groin, had a grade of 87 for his fine blocking in the Spearman game.

On defense Sandy Hair made five tackles and five assists for a score of 87 and Steve Russell intercepted a pass and had a grade of 77.

Linebacker Darrell Brietling had a grade of 89 and made seven tackles and Rick Hales made six tackles and a grade of 82. Kelly "Mad Dog" Tinsley assisted in 12 tackles from his down position in the defensive line. John Lewis, defensive end, recovered one fumble and had a score of 80.

Mayor To Sign Proclamation

Mayor Paul Lindsey is expected before Monday to sign a proclamation naming next week as Fire Prevention Week in Canyon.

But, the mayor's proclamation will be only part of many activities planned by the local Fire Department to remind residents of fire prevention.

Throughout next week, programs will be presented in local and area schools by Fire Capt. Joe Rice and other Firemen.

An open house will kick-off the week from 2-5 p.m. Sunday at the Fire Station.

The week will end the following Saturday with a 10:30 a.m. parade through downtown Canyon and a fire extinguishing demonstration from 2-5 p.m. on Lindsey Fire Drill Field in west Canyon.

TEA Consultant Sets WT Talk

The humanities consultant for the Texas Education Agency, Jerry Hickman, will be guest speaker for the District 16 Texas Joint English Committee Workshop to be held on the West Texas State University campus Saturday.

Sessions will be from 8:30 a.m. to noon in the Student Union Building ballroom.

Boy Scout Fund Drive Continues

Collection reports are not available yet this week for the advanced gift campaign of the Randall District of the Boy Scouts of America according to Bennie Cooper, advanced gifts chairman.

"We are still working and hope to conclude the advance portion of the drive late this week," stated Cooper.

The annual citywide campaign will be conducted later in the month, according to Gene McGlasson, campaign chairman.

Artist To Have WT Workshop

A nationally-known artist will conduct a field weekend workshop at West Texas State University in late October.

Milford Zornes, who has been exhibiting his water colors since 1931 in this country, will use the Panhandle as background for the workshop.

JVs Meet Blackhawks

Canyon High School's junior varsity team, unbeaten, untied, and unscored on in three games, will try to avenge last season's only defeat when it confronts Phillips Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the Canyon High School Field.

The young Eagles have rolled over Alamo Catholic 48-0, Tulia, 63-0 and Panhandle 62-0 for a total of 173 and an average of nearly 58 points a game.

JV Coach Clark Mires said he expected the toughest battle thus far this season Thursday night and added that the game might be called a "grudge match."

Last year Phillips edged Canyon's JVs 21-20, the only blot on the Eagles' record in nine outings.

Fifth Birthday For Young Miss

Lynda Rhea Brotherton was honored on her fifth birthday, September 23, with an outing to Thompson Park Zoo in Amarillo.

Hosted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Brotherton, the party included a trip to the zoo for friends, Kari Beth Davidchik, Angela Levens, Scott Robinson and Michael Butcher. The group then returned to the home of Lynda's grandmother, Mrs. Jeannette Robbins, where they were presented with circus balloons, party hats and served cupcakes decorated with animals.

Later in the evening, Miss Brotherton was the honoree at a relative gathering in the Robbins home where her other grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Brotherton, was among guests.

Other guests were Debbie Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brotherton, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Zevely, Dan and Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cooper, Bobby Brotherton and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brotherton.

Central point of the occasion was the birthday cake baked and decorated in the shape of a mountain with a climbing train and animal figures decorating it.

Churchwomen At Meetings

Annual churchwomen's conference for the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Northwest Texas was held September 26-28 with Rev. Hudnell Harvey, D.D., dean of the Seminary of the Southwest in Austin as leader.

Right Rev. George H. Quarterman, bishop of the Diocese of Northwest Texas, was chaplain for the conference.

Mrs. Hollice Snyder and Mrs. Rose W. Kinzer of St. Andrews University Center Church in Canyon were among approximately 60 women attending the week of fellowship and education.

Mrs. Harvey Herd, Holy Trinity Church of Midland, president of the Diocesan Churchwomen, presided at a Saturday board meeting and gave her report on the special general convention of the Episcopal Church at Notre Dame, Indiana.

Miss Murdock Queen At Happy Homecoming

Tanya Murdock was crowned homecoming queen at Happy High School Friday afternoon in the annual ex-student homecoming assembly attended by about 150 ex-students.

Her runnerup attendants were Penny Flaherty and Janet Moudy. The queen was escorted by Greg Pearson, Happy Cowboy football captain, and the attendants were escorted by Charles House, co-captain, and Joe Bill Dempsey.

The queen and her court were also presented during the halftime activities of the ballgame which ended in a 20-20 tie between HHS and the Vega Longhorns.

Tommy Forsyth, president of the HHS Student Council, presided at the ex-student assembly and Ann Moudy was mistress of ceremonies. The program was presented by the high school choir under the direction of Mary Etta Bryan. The choir sang songs commemorating the honored classes and the anniversary classes of '19 and '44.

An ex-student business session followed the assembly with Mrs. Lonas Wright, vice president of the ex-students, in charge.

Recognized for traveling the greatest distance were Mrs. Geraldine Sharpes Smith and Mrs. Leona Sharpes Allen of Lake Jackson, Texas. Mrs. Smith had not been in Happy for a period of 28 years.

Oldest ex-student attending was Mrs. Grace Schaeffer. Third generation families of Mdmes. Dora Walter Ratjen, Catherine Rahlfs Miller, Clara Guest Magness, Grace White Schaeffer, Viola Knox Buchanan and Bertie Knox Culp were recognized.

Deceased ex-students were honored with a silence segment. Those recognized were Ora Cook Culton, '08; Otto Dinwiddie, '18; O. R. Bridges, '23; Embry Finley, '12; Dolly Johncon Currie, '38; and Elvin Scroggins, '60.

Ex-students from three states attended the occasion. Coach Bill Harle introduced the special guests from the '39 basketball championship team and a team picture was presented to the school by Juanita Raymond Witt of Perryton, who was co-captain of the team. Other team members introduced were Mesdames Mildred Guest Zachry, Fern Fortenberry Spear, Ora Mary Gurley Sims, Naomi Ruth Dod Dunlap, Maurine Prewitt Allison, Jerry Ponder Holland and Leona Sharpes Allen.

The special guests were introduced during game halftime and Mrs. Lonita Heller Smith of Midland joined the other team members.

The homecoming was concluded with a coffee in the school cafeteria after the game.

98 Paintings To Hang At WT

Ninety-eight paintings presented by the Coppini Art Academy will hang in the Fine Arts Room of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum through October.

They will be shown during regular museum hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays.

Other art displays will be presented on a monthly basis this year in the museum.

McKinney, Redic Top Buffs

A 6-1, 215-pound defensive middle linebacker was named this week as top defensive player in last Saturday's West Texas State University tilt with Northern Illinois.

Bill McKinney, who hails from Borger and is a Vietnam veteran, took the honors as he was credited with three unassisted and eight assisted tackles.

Top offensive player for the Husky-Buff battle was sophomore quarterback Clarence Redic, who passed for 178 yards, completing 10 of 16 tries.

Head Buff Coach Joe Kerbel introduced the two outstanding team members at the weekly Buff Touchdown Club meeting Monday night.

Kerbel called Redic "the finest football player in the country."

While noting that Redic's passes were fairly effective against the Husky defense, Kerbel said more of the Roy Winters style jump passes will be used in future games.

When asked about his feelings on the upcoming Saturday night tilt with Wichita State University in Wichita, Kan., Redic said WSU has always had a tradition of being tough against West Texas.

McKinney echoed Redic's feelings.

Kerbel said WSU was low last week when they lost by a tremendous margin to Colorado State. But, he said he expects them to be high when they meet the Buffs.

Speaking of last week's game, Kerbel refuted statements made by Northern Illinois coach Doc Urich that the Buffaloes play dirty football.

"A lot of things happen in a game," he said. "And, our boys are not taught dirty football."

The coach then pointed out in the game film to club members several plays where so-called dirty football could be called on the Huskies.

On the third play of the game, the film indicates, Wayne Adams, Buff offensive tackle, was elbowed twice while blocking.

Also shown in the film is what Kerbel termed an obvious roughing the passer play, which went unnoticed by referees.

The film shows that on the first fumble of fullback Duane Thomas, the ball was jerked from his hands while he was pulled down by the back of his helmet.

Kerbel said the defense in last Saturday's game was improved tremendously over the previous opening loss to Northern Arizona.

DMA Waits On Report

The Downtown Merchants Association of Canyon decided last week to wait until a final report on proposed beautification of the downtown area is readied by Dallas planner Marvin Springer before making a commitment on any project.

Springer proposed a plan in August which would cost about $1 million. He presented his plan to city commissioners and members of the Downtown Merchants Association.

His plan calls for the sculpturing of sidewalks and placement of planters and trees in conspicuous locations around the Canyon square.

SPEED READING CLASSES SET FOR CANYON

The famous Cutler Acceleread method of speed reading, created by Dr. Wade E. Cutler, who holds a doctorate in psychology, will be taught here in both day and evening classes.

The average person today reads some 200 words per minute with about 60% comprehension - a rate inadequate to cope with today's reading demands in school, college, and business.

This widely acclaimed course guarantees its graduates will read at least 1,000 words per minute with a definite increase in comprehension.

Many graduates of the nine-week program far exceed the guarantee and complete with rates of 2,500 and more words per minute with far better comprehension.

Concentration, recall, study and test-taking skills show a remarkable degree of improvement.

Such achievement means that a person can read books of average length in 45 minutes or less, and understand, remember, and enjoy them better than ever.

This remarkable accelerated reading and study course is offered here exclusively by Accelerated Education Schools with locations in major cities in Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, and Oklahoma.

This professionally conducted course boasts over 10,000 successful graduates due to its common sense approach to better and faster reading, and to its staff of professionally qualified master teachers.

A series of meetings has been scheduled for those in the Canyon area who desire to know how they too may learn to read with greater speed, power, and efficiency.

At these free one-hour orientations, full details about speed reading and the unique Cutler Acceleread Method will be given to those forward-looking persons attending.

Since there is no cost or obligation by attending, you owe it to yourself to attend the time most convenient for you.

Drop in and find out how you can make 1969 a more successfull year.

Booster Club Views Game

Dalhart's Wolves are not as good a team as Phillips, but are better than Olton and Spearman, Canyon High School Coach Dunny Goode told about 50 members of the Eagle Booster Club Tuesday night.

Even so, Goode said he has been very impressed with Dalhart, a team which beat the Eagles 26-21 last year.

The Eagles and Wolves meet at 8 p.m. Friday.

Dalhart returns nine starters from last season's team, Goode said. They run from a strong wing T formation.

The Wolves are 2-1-0 for the season, losing only to Tulia 18-14 last week.

"Most coaches when they schedule their homecoming opponent, pick the sorriest team they can find to play," Goode told the members. "But, we didn't have an easy game on our schedule so we just picked one out of the middle."

Goode announced at the meeting that Lonnie Moore, 165-pound senior wingback, was injured in last Friday's Spearman game and will probably be unable to start against Dalhart. Moore reportedly pulled a groin muscle.

CHS Junior Varsity Coach Clark Mires, whose team has scored more than 170 points while holding three opponents scoreless, said Phillips will be tough. The Canyon jv meets Phillips at 6:30 p.m. today on the CHS field.

Double Ring Marriage Confirmed In Dalhart

Double ring marriage rites for Miss Martha Lane Whiteaker and Phillip Lee (Red) Parker were confirmed Saturday evening, September 27, at the First Baptist Church in Dalhart.

Rev. Jimmy Reese officiated at the exchange of vows where the church was decorated with white gladioli and "Together Forever" and the "Lord's Prayer" were sung by Kendall Mullins with accompaniment by Mrs. Ray Foster.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Whiteaker of Dalhart. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Parker of Canyon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal floor length gown of white satin with high neckline and bodice of French re-embroidered alencon lace which cascaded down the sides of the gown and on the elbow length bell sleeves. The chapel length train was attached at the waist with a tailored bow featuring a center panel of edging of the re-embroidered French lace. Her headpiece was a forward crown of leaf design of alencon lace with seedpearl trim attached to a four tiered elbow length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of bride's roses centered with a white cattleya orchid.

Bridal attendants were Debra Carol Whiteaker, sister of the bride, from Dalhart, Beverly Jane Cooper of Dalhart, Mrs. Donnie Parker of Perkins, Oklahoma, Mrs. Chester Latham of Dalhart, Ann Gay of Dallas and Vicki Loggins of Amarillo.

They each carried a cascade bouquet of yellow fiji mums. They were gowned in floorlength dresses of candy green Saki silk with scooped necklines encircled with matching ruffles. The empire bodices were enhanced with narrow bands and tailored bows. Their headpieces were green nylon illusion attached to a six-pointed leaf crown. They wore matching satin pumps.

Donnie Parker was best man. Groomsmen were Foster Parker, Jerry Parker, Tommy Higgins, Mike Reeves and Randy Goldsmith. Ushering were Gary Porter, Kenny Miller and Mike Whiteaker, the bride's brother.

Ringbearer was Tommy Clifton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Parker of Perkins, Oklahoma. The flowergirl was Christi Fields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fields of Amarillo.

A reception for the couple was held at the Dalhart Country Club after the ceremony. The couple will establish their home in Canyon following a wedding trip to Hawaii.

A graduate of Dalhart High School, the bride was a sophomore student studying at Texas Technological University prior to the marriage.

The bridegroom graduated from Canyon High School, attended Texas Christian University where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and is presently attending West Texas State University.

Spooks and goblins of all ages will be entertained Halloween night with the annual carnival sponsored by the Canyon Study Club.

Other civic clubs, school groups and organizations interested in sponsoring a booth at the carnival should contact Mrs. Durwood Henderson, chairman, as soon as possible.

Already scheduled to sponsor activities at the carnival this year are the Heritage Woman's Club, Alpha Delta Pi sorority, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club and Lions Club.

The annual carnival will begin at 7 p.m. and is tentatively set to be held in the Junior Livestock Building, according to Mrs. Don Vars, CSC president.

Mrs. Vars stated that the club is presently seeking suitable buildings to house the carnival festivities. She said that the Junior Livestock Building, which has been used in the past, may be the ultimate site of the carnival, however the old bank building of West Texas State Bank, on the square, may be used if an additional empty building may be secured in the downtown area.

Clubs desiring to have booth space may contact Mrs. Henderson for further details. The carnival sponsoring club asks for a 25 percent booth space rental fee.

Each booth may sponsor a candidate in the Halloween Queen's contest. Proceeds from the sponsorship of the carnival and queen's contest will be used by the CSC for their scholarship fund and other community projects.

Concert Member Drive Underway

A membership renewal campaign for the Canyon Community Concert Association began Monday.

The campaign, which will be conducted for two weeks, will be followed with a new member drive. Directing the membership campaigns will be Mrs. Joseph Findley, chairman.

DISCUSSING THE MEMBERSHIP campaign for the Canyon Community Concert Association are W. E. Adams, standing, CCA president; and from left, Dr. John Green, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Findley, campaign chairman; and Donald Todd, secretary.

Memberships are $10 for adults and $5 for students. The membership cards will be used again this year on a punch system where they may be used for any of the three local concerts singly or at one local concert with multiple punches.

Through the riciprocity arrangement with other area CCA groups, local members may attend concerts throughout the area. Opening the area reciprocity programs this year will be a series of early October programs by Fiesta Mexicana, a group of 30 Mexico City musicians and dancers who will perform in Lubbock, October 8; in Borger, October 9; and in Dumas, October 13. Also early in the reciprocity schedule will be the Dorothy Warenskjold's Musical Theatre performance in Clovis, New Mexico October 14.

According to Mrs. Findley, local members may attend the early reciprocity programs with the paid stub from local membership cards.

The local drive for new members here will be opened with a worker's dinner on October 12 at the Hunsley Hills Country Club at 6:45 p.m. where Mrs. Shirley Callahan of Columbia Artists, Community Concert Association representative, will be special guest.

The dinner will precede the new member drive to be held in the city the week of October 13. Headquarters for the new member drive will be at Southwestern Public Service where CCA members will operate a membership booth.

CCA officers for the 1969-70 season are W. E. Adams, chairman; Dr. John Green, treasurer; Donald Toss, secretary; Raymond Raillard, publicity; and Mrs. Joe Findley, campaign chairman.

Already scheduled for an appearance April 26 in Canyon is the Zurich Chamber Orchestra conducted by Edmond De Stoutz. The conductor recruited his group from among other graduate-studies musicians at the Zurich Conservatory in 1945 and the orchestra gained quick recognition. In addition to countless concerts in other countries, the group has averaged 40 concerts a season in Germany alone in recent years.

Two other concerts in Canyon have yet to be contracted, according to Mrs. Findley.

Sports Car Club Holds Annual Rally

An annual over-night rally for the members of the Panhandle Foreign Sports Car Club is being spearheaded by Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy R. Belyeu of the Gene Howe area.

The rally is one of the club's largest events of the year and will include about thirty-eight persons from all over the Panhandle area.

Primarily foreign sports cars are involved in the rally but some American cars are included. Some of the cars that will be making the route will be Triumphs, Renaults, Chevrolets, Corvairs, Ford Mustangs, M G's, Corvettes, Volkswagons, and Portches.

Registration for the affair will take place at 6:30 a.m. Saturday morning and the first car will leave for Taos, New Mexico at 7:45 a.m.

Two people drive in a car with one as the driver and the other as navigator. The cars must check in at check points all along the unknown route. At each check in, they receive a set of instructons on how to get to the next check point.

Points are given to the teams for delinquent time elements and the cars must maintain a prescribed speed in order not to collect the points.

The least number of points accummulated determines the winner.

As the teams converge on the Taos area around 7:00 p.m. Saturday evening, they will have a banquet waiting for them where the winners of the event will be announced.

There is no preplanned panel but a discussion will be held after the films.
